Ladder Association Training Course

1 Day course details

This course delivered by Langley covers the correct use, handling and storage of ladders and stepladders. It combines theory and hands-on practical learning for up to 10 trainees.

Once you've successfully completed the course, you will be accredited for two years to inspect and record the condition of ladders. You'll also be presented with a certificate and photocard as proof of your accreditation.

Venue

The course will usually take place at one of our training centres. For large groups, we can conduct the course at the location of your choice.
